Chill-Couch Nuptials Are Recited at St. Catherine's

At an 11 o'clock nuptial mass on Aug. 29 at the St. Catherine Laboure Catholic Church, Miss Penny Dee Chill, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Chill, 3731 W. 176th St., exchanged her wedding vows with David Wayne Couch, son of Mrs. Nina Couch of Manhattan Beach.

On the arm of her father, the bride approached the altar wearing a ballerina length gown of white lace with a scalloped hemline and white chiffon cummerbund. A pearl tiara held her illusion veil and she carried white orchids encircled by white roses.

Miss Elaine Marie Dorn was the maid of honor. She was gowned in blue chiffon and carried white carnations tied with blue ribbon. Bridesmaids were Misses Marynelle Brown and Barbara Zelazny. Both wore coral chiffon gowns and carried white carnations.

Robert Lucas performed the duties of best man and ushers were John Noone and Neal Smith.

Rev. Thomas Hollinger conducted the marriage and Val White, organist, played the nuptial music.

A reception was held at the Knights of Columbus hall and the couple spent a honeymoon at Big Bear. They are now at home in Inglewood.

The bride was graduated from St. Michael's High school last June. She is employed at the Southwest Bank in Inglewood. Mr. Couch was graduated from Mira Costa High school and served two years with the United States Navy. He is now employed at Hughes Aircraft.

Mrs. Charles A. Johannsen of Brookfield, Ill., came to attend the wedding.
